Len Goodman Dancing With The Stars

Better Late Than Never Len Goodman, 2009-10-06 Better Late Than Never is the extraordinary true story of how a man born into poverty in London's East End went on to find stardom late in life when he was chosen to be head judge on BBC1's Strictly Come Dancing. Len Goodman tells all about his new found fame, his experiences on Strictly Come Dancing and also on the no 1 US show Dancing with the Stars and his encounters with the likes of Heather Mills, McCartney and John Sergeant. But the real story is in his East End roots. And Len's early life couldn't be more East End. The son of a Bethnal Green costermonger, he spent his formative years running the fruit and veg barrow and being bathed at night in the same water Nan used to cook the beetroot. There are echoes of Billy Elliot too. Though Len was a welder in the London Docks, he dreamt of being a professional footballer and came close to making the grade had he not broken his foot on Hackney Marshes. The doctor recommended ballroom dancing as a light aid to his recovery. And Len, it turned out, was a natural. At first his family and work mates mocked, but soon he had made the final of a national competition and the welders descended en masse to the Albert Hall to cheer him on. With his dance partner and then wife Cheryl, Len won the British Championships in his late twenties and ballroom dancing became his life. Funny and heart-warming, Len Goodman's autobiography has all the honest East End charm of Tommy Steele, Mike Read or Roberta Taylor.

The Geraldo Show Geraldo Rivera,2018-04-03 During my half a century in public life my image and reputation have had more ups and downs than the Cyclone roller coaster at Coney Island I have been called savior and sinner fool and wise man crusader and exploiter hothead and dope I am routinely scorned admired beloved and belittled which one is usually based on when the viewer tuned in Were you around for my early days as a crusading local newsman Did you waste an evening with me inside Al Capone s empty vault Were you watching when the bombs dropped in Afghanistan or Iraq or did you tune in to the raucous talk show when my nose was broken in the best television studio brawl ever caught on tape Since the attacks of September 11 2001 and my employment by the conservative rabble rousers of Fox News and more recently with the coming of the Age of Trump my professional life has been even more difficult to define How could a sincerely progressive native born Jew Rican New Yorker like me ever work for an outfit better suited to the vibes of Orange County California the Dixie Appalachia or the Mountain West How could I not condemn and obstruct a wrecking ball like Donald Trump Over five decades I have met most of the era s good and bad guys from Ronald Reagan to Charles Manson Fidel Castro to Yasser Arafat Muhammad Ali to John Lennon and Elvis Presley to Michael Jackson Two figure heavily in this book both longtime friends Roger Ailes the disgraced yet undeniably brilliant creator of Fox News and Donald Trump once a flamboyant playboy billionaire businessman and now 45th President of the United States At the vigorous twilight of a long and largely improvised life lived in plain sight I have little left to prove Faced with a series of random chances for better and worse what I made of my life is what I made of those chances Time has enlightened and humbled me Sincerely Geraldo Rivera
